NZ Labour Party archives – 100 years on the left.

Are you interested in depositing NZ Labour Party related materials in archives, libraries, museums or other repositories in your region?

Not sure or overwhelmed?

Come to a co-facilitated workshop with Dr Emma Kelly, Labour 100 Archivist and local archival/museum experts in your region to learn how to organise your photos, branch minutes, office-bearers papers, election material, posters, leaflets and notes so that they might be made available for future researchers and the general public.

DATE: Thursday 9th February 2017
10am – 1.30pm lunch provided

VENUE: Meet at Auckland Museum Library Reading Room (located on the second floor. The entrance is through the foyer or atrium ends of the Museum. If you enter the Pictorial Gallery, the library is in front of you.)

RSVP to emma.kelly@vuw.ac.nz or
